

Activity Cards – Correct Sequence

Potential Contact	In Touch	Belonging	Embracing the gospel	Following Jesus	Serving In ministry	Leading Ministry
Watch the lifestyles of your neighbours , notice that one of your neighbours loves gardening.	Ask neighbour's advice on a diseased plant you have. Invite in for afternoon tea. Begin regular dialogue about gardening.	Invite neighbour to a bbq at home with some church friends . Continue invitations and accept reciprocal invitations.	Invite neighbour to a Christianity Explained info supper. Offer to attend the course with them.	Invite new believer to your neighbourhood discipleship cell group .	Encourage growing disciple to use their hospitality skills by hosting activities at their home.	Meet for regular coaching as your friend begins leadership of a new neighbourhood cell group
Advertise your playgroup in the local community newspaper, including a phone number for further information.	Respond warmly to a phone inquiry by asking questions about needs and expectations, and make an appointment for a guided tour of the playgroup.	Introduce newcomer to a church member, who intentionally builds friendship and introduces to other mums at Playgroup.	Conduct a brief Alpha promotion at playgroup. Church members offer to attend Alpha course with unchurched mums .	Invite playgroup friend to mid-week growth group where you study the Bible and pray for each other.	Christian playgroup mums have a weekly phone coaching appointment to discuss ministry progress and pray for each other.	Playgroup team leaders meet monthly to renew vision, share ministry issues and pray together.
Kids from the youth group sign up to play with a local basketball team . Parents drive kids to games.	Church kids develop friendships with unchurched kids. Parents follow kids relationships and foster friendships with other parents.	Church kids invite new friends to youth camp. Parents invite new friends' families on camping weekends with church families.	Kids invite interested friends to lunchtime discussion group around the film The Revolutionary . Parents invite interested friends to study Luke via Jesus video.	Believers gather weekly in a coffee house to discuss Christian classics like Coleman's Master Plan for Evangelism .	Disciples complete the 'shape' course, and commit to serving in various ministries according to the results.	A six-monthly leadership retreat allows time for spiritual reflection, renewal and future planning.